a Fearful Accident at the Junction of the Texas Central and the Missouri, Kansas & Texas Road a Mile West of Waxahachie Last Night—
Wreck Near Nashville, Tenn.WAXAHACHIE, Tex., Dec. 26.—[Special]—Two passenger trains collided at six o'clock last night, at the crossing of the Texas Central and Missouri Kansas & Texas railroads, a mile west of here last night. Seventeen people were injured in the crash, three of them it is feared, fatally.NASHVILLE, Tenn., Dec. 26.—Train No. 1, Louisville & Nashville through passenger train to New Orleans, was wrecked last night near Brentwood, nine miles south of here. A reporter who went to the scene of the wreck telephones that the train run into some coal cars which had run down the grade from Brentwood because of an open switch. The engine was demolished and D. G. Shugart, engineer, and his fireman, both of Nashville, were found in the wreck badly scalded and unconscious. The baggage and express car caught fire and were demolished. The baggage master was hurt, but not seriously. The passenger cars and sleepers did not leave the track, but the passengers were badly shaken up, though none were hurt. Trains will be delayed until the track is cleared.THE GEORGIA RACE WAR IS OVER The Troops Leave the Scene and All
Is Quiet NowVICTIM, Ga., Dec. 26.—The race trouble in Brooks county is over. The Valdosta Videttes were ordered here Tuesday night by the governor. They found peace restored and the people assured them there would be no more trouble and they came back to Quitman about 2 o'clock. The Valdosta Videttes left on the afternoon train for Valdosta. As far as can be learned seven negroes have been killed.The northern portion of Brooks, portions of Worth, Berrien and other counties adjoining, have large numbers of negroes, mostly brought from North Carolina for the purpose of getting turpentine from the pine trees which abound there. These negroes live in camps and are a lawless set, controlled only by fear of punishment from the bosses. With out any restraining influence, save fear, they fight among themselves, rob the neighboring people, gamble incessantly when not at work, and if any resident white man incurs their displeasure he is marked as a victim of their wrath. It was in this country that the killing of Constable Maulden two weeks ago by the two negro desperadoes, Jeffreys, took place. All the race trouble dates from this. Maulden went into one of the turpentine camps to arrest a negro.
The Jeffreys set upon Eaulden and shot him to death. Maulden was a confederate soldier and belonged to a prominent family. His murder created wide spread excitement and a posse set out after the murderers. The Jeffreys were captured and put in jail.Prominent among the posse pursuing the Jeffreys were Joseph Isom and his brother-in-law, Henry Tillman, who is kin to the former governor, now a senator of South Carolina. Those men were persistent in the chase and incurred the enmity of the negroes. The Jeffreys were gamblers and idlers, and yet they were popular with the negroes. Their arrest caused the negroes who knew the Jeffreys and liked them to form a band and that band made Waverly Pike its leader. Pike is a dangerous man and led that section of the negro settlement like Bob Brewer did at Jessup five years ago to-day.
The band pledged to take revenge upon every one who had a hand in the arrest of the Jeffreys brothers. McCaull, a negro, who was Pike's lieutenant and who is now in jail for his killing of Isom, has so declared in his confession.The band of negroes after selecting officers subscribed to a promise that every one instrumental in capturing the Jeffreys brothers should die. Each member declared that he would deal out death to any one of the party on the first opportunity. To the organization was given the names of men whom they wanted dealt with. In the list were the names of Isom and Tillman.The negroes kept their counsel well and nothing was known of the mark of death which hung over a dozen or more until after the death of Isom, when McCaull told the story.The killing of Isom last Thursday was according to McCaull only an opening chapter.As soon as Isom's body had been taken home Judge F. W. Tillman and Henry Tillman, his brother-in-law, organized for the search for the murderers. There were four negroes in the party, two named Herring, Mc-Caull, who has confessed, and Pike, who is still at large. McCaull and the Herrings were caught the first night.
The efforts to capture Pike wereredoubled and people came from Colquitt, Berrien, and other counties armed for the search. Pike's place of hiding was revealed to the party by a negro and that evening a visit was made to the place, but the negro was not there.
On that trip the whites, in large numbers, encountered a party of negroes and several shots were exchanged. It was a fight after the bushwhacking order, and a negro named Henry Sheerod, known to be a warm friend of Pike, was killed.This killing intensified the feeling and the crowds increased. The whites went to the cabin of Tom Taylor, Pike's stepfather. Taylor showed fight and a volley of bullets put a stop to his career. Frazier and Sam Pike fired on some whites they met in the road and both were killed. This was the record up to Saturday night.The negroes, so it is claimed, then swore to take the life of every man, woman and child in the district. This brought the white men together in large numbers. There were reckless men in the crowds, though the majority of sentiment was in favor of conservative measures.At the home of Eli Frazier they took the negro's wife out and beat her terribly, expecting, they said, to make her tell the whereabouts of Pike. When Mitchell Brice, upon whose plantation the negro lived, heard of this he started after the perpetrators and he and Capt. Tillman became involved in a shooting affray. There are three or four other negroes killed, but the names are unknown.Tuesday night there was a conference between the whites and blacks looking to Pike's surrender. The whites here guaranteed protection and a fair trial, and they hold as hostage Pike's mistress, whom they threaten to make an example of if Pike is not surrendered.By Charged with Killing a Negro.
JACKSON, Tenn., Dec. 26.—Sam
Hayes, aged about 17 years, is charged with killing Will Austin, a negro, last night. He is a son of Police Officer

COLUMBUS, Ind., Dec. 26.—In the First Baptist church here last night
Christmas exercises were being held.
Rev. Gilbert Dobbs, pastor in charge, was to impersonate Santa Claus and was covered with cotton. He approached the lights, when the cotton caught fire. Persons near threw him to the floor and finally succeeded in extinguishing the flames, but not until he was badly burned. It is thought he will recover.Pope Will Issue an Encyclical.
CLEVELAND, Ohio, Dec. 26.—Bishop Hortsmann returned from Rome Saturday and announces that the Pope would address an encyclical letter to the Catholic people of America before the close of this year. The letter will contain an expression of the devotion and loyalty of his holiness to the Catholic clergy and laity of America. The bishop said further that the pope expresses himself as greatly pleased with the progress of the Catholic church in America.Ignacio and Band in Colorado.
DENVER, Colo., Dec. 26.—A telegram was received yesterday at army headquarters from Col. Lawton, inspector-general of the department of Colorado, says that Ignacio and his band of Utes are again in Colorado. The Utes were divided into two parties for the jour-

had been six days and three nights in the saddle, under trying conditions.Two Sticks Must Die by the Rope.

M. Flagler, a director of the Standard Oil company, as soon as he shall receive word from Gov. Mitchell of Florida to the effect that his (Hogg's) requisition has been honored.Would-Be Train Wreckers Baffled.
LATA, S. C., Dec. 26.—An attempt was made last night to wreck train No.
23 between Latta and Sellers. Cross-ties were piled up in five different places on the track, but the engine succeeded in throwing all but one from the track. This one was lodged under the pilot of the engine and was taken out before any damage was done. Train No. 32, going north, was also delayed several minutes at the same place, but no damage was done. The attempt was probably made by four white men, who were seen at a fire near the first obstruction just before train No. 23 passed.MR. GEAR IS BETTER AND WILL GET UPIOWA CONGRESSMAN MUCH IM-PROVED TODAYDispatch From Washington Announces a Change in His Condition This Morning—He Was Suddenly Stricken With Symptoms of Apoplexy at the Capitol.WASHINGTON, Dec. 26.—[Special]— Congressman John H. Gear of Iowa is much better this morning. Congressman Gear was suddenly stricken at an early hour yesterday with symptoms of apoplexy at his apartments in the Portland and for several hours it was feared it might result fatally. Dr. Gardner was summoned and cupping and leeching were resorted to with such beneficial results that in the evening the distinguished patient was resting quietly and easily. For a while he was unconscious and this gave his wife considerable uneasiness, but under treatment he rallied perceptibly. Mrs. Gear is the only member of the governor's family with him at present, and she has been under the care of an old family nurse for several years. Members of the Iowa delegation and other friends who called at the Portland in the evening were assured that Mr. Gear was out of danger, and that with care and attention he would soon be about again as usual.

ATTACK AN OFFICER.

Desperate Effort of Street Ruffians to Rescue a Comrade.PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Dec. 26.—While Policeman McFarland was attempting to arrest William Brown, one of a gang of up town toughs last evening,
he was set upon by Charles Gallagher, John Morrell and William Slaar, companions of Brown. To defend himself and hold his prisoner McFarland fired three shots from his gun, one of which tore out Gallagher's right eye and another lodged at the base of the brain. The other man then seized the policeman's club and pistol and after knocking him down shot twice at him.
One bullet struck the policeman's arm and the other inflicted a flesh wound on the body. Gallagher is dying at a hospital and McFarland is in a serious condition as a result of the clubbing.
Morrell and Slaar are in custody.
Brown escaped.

FAMINE FEARED.

Distressing Condition of Affairs Caused by Newfoundland Bank Failure.ST. JOHN'S, N. F., Dec. 26.—A fort night has elapsed since the Commercial bank disaster and the situation is as yet unimproved. There is intense suffering and destitution in this city;
every kind of employment has ceased,
and it is as unlike Christmas as possible. The cold, too, is intense, and nearly all are unprovided for it.
Hundreds, the possessors of commercial bank notes, can not purchase food or fuel. Business people demand cash and the public offices will take nothing but gold. The house of assembly Tuesday night debated a motion proposed by Ex-Attorney-General Morrison, leader of the opposition, that the government bring in a bill compelling the Commercial and Union banks to accept their own notes in liquidation of the amounts owed by the debtors of the banks. The banks' debtors would be very glad to give goods in exchange for the notes and then pay the banks with the paper. This would remove the whole note circulation from trade and enable the banks to effect more satisfactory terms with the remaining creditors and possibly enable them to resume business with a decreased capital and under safer methods. The government refused to accept the proposition and Mr. Morrison withdrew it, but the government is likely to incorporate the plan in its own bill for legalizing the notes.It is semi-officially announced that the Union bank is solvent and that it will be able to resume shortly.

STATE CLAIMS BILL.

Illinois and Other Western States Are Specially Interested.MILWAUKEE, Wis., Dec. 26.—Congressman Peter J. Somers, who is spending the holidays in this city and is a member of the public buildings committee of the house, says the bill which provides for the payment of the claims of several states for the 5 per cent commission for the sale of government lands within their borders will pass both houses of congress this session.
By the provisions of the bill the government will have to pay to twenty-two states over $9,000,000, of which Wisconsin will receive $466,000; Illinois has a claim about double the amount of Wisconsin. The other states which have large claims are Arkansas, Nebraska, the Dakotas, Iowa and Kansas.
These claims grow out of the adjustment of the public lands matters at the times of the admission of the states into the Union.

Hellings, pastor of the First Baptist church here, resigned to-day. He came here two years ago from Milwaukee.

has had only three charges in twenty-five years. His church burned down three weeks ago, and this and bad health caused the resignation.CHURCHILL DYING AND HOPE IS GONE.ALL IDEA OF HIS RECOVERY IS ABANDONED.Dispatch From London Says that the End is Inevitable—He Now Suffer-From General Paralysis and Lays in a Semi Unconscious Condition That is Considered Critical.LONDON, Dec. 26.—[Special]—All hope of the recovery of Lord Randolph Churchill has been abandoned. At noon yesterday Dr. Buzzard and Dr. Keith signed the following: "Lord Randolph Churchill is suffering from general paralysis.
He lies in a semi-conscious and critical condition. The physicians add that the patient has not entirely lost the use of his lower limbs, but his weakness is extreme and his appetite is slight. Tuesday night, however, he was able to partake of a light supper, and in the morning he ate a light breakfast. The serious symptoms appeared ten days ago.

KNOWS NOTHING OF PEACE.

Japanese Legation at Washington Hears
No News From Home.WASHINGTON, Dec. 26.—No information has yet reached the Japanese legation here of the appointment of peace commissioners to treat with the Chinese ambassadors recently appointed.
The suggestion is advanced that the Japanese government is probably awaiting the arrival of the Chinese ambassadors before making the appointments. The Japanese commissioners need not, in fact, be appointed until some formal proposition is made by the Chinese envoys.
Owing to the fact communication from Peking to Chinese ports is somewhat delayed on account of the frozen rivers and canals, the arrival of the Chinese in Japan may be delayed for some time. Nothing concerning the reports that Shao, one of the Chinese ambassadors, will be persona grata to the Japanese, on account of his action as governor of Formosa, has been received at the legation.YOKOHAMA, Dec. 26.—Although Japanese rule is accepted by the Koreans generally, the Tong Haks are still active. They have just captured Lai Ju, capital of the province of Haido.
They expelled the governor and installed one of their number in his place. Three towns in southern Corea have been burned by them. Their numbers are increasing; they are getting reinforcements from the Tiger hunters.

of the Elysee. Troops were drawn up in the court yard, and Gen. Tchertkoff was received with the highest honors.
Flattering speeches were exchanged.

White Caps Raid an Ohio County.

PEEBLES, Ohio, Dec. 26.—Forty white caps made a raid through Adams county last night. A farmer named Henry Shreever was taken from the house, and after acknowledging certain petty thefts was given a severe flogging. Shreever's cries aroused Samuel Longley, who lives near, and fearing a visit from the whitecaps he fled. Longley's wife, however, stood her ground and defended her home, but the whitecaps took her also, and after whipping her dispersed.

THINK POOLING BILL WILL PASS

Friends of the Measure Say It Is Safe in the Senate.WASHINGTON, Dec. 26.—Senator Butler, chairman of the senate committee on interstate commerce, expects to call the committee together immediately after the holidays for the purpose of taking up the pooling bill. There are indications that there will be some opposition in the committee to the bill in the form it passed the house, and some remonstrances against it have been received from various parts of the country, but the friends of the measure say that when the voting stage is reached in committee it will have a safe majority. They think the senate committee will accept the plan virtually as it was adopted by the house.
This opinion is based upon the fact that the senate committee had a subcommittee at work last session in conjunction with the house subcommittee, and that the two subcommittees agreed upon a measure which was not materially different from the house bill. With the bill reported there will be a strong effort to have it taken up in the senate; but the pooling bill was not one of the measures designed for consideration by the democratic caucus, and if it should antagonize any of the preferred bills its chances for securing consideration might be impaired.

Killed While Beating His Wife.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Dec. 26.—Thomas Pritchard yesterday shot and killed
John J. Williams at Ridgely. Pritchard is a brother-in-law of Williams.
The latter has had trouble with his wife, resulting in a separation. Williams went to Pritchard's house and assaulted Mrs. Williams, who was there, with a rolling pin. When Pritchard interfered Williams seized a butcher knife and made a lunge at Pritchard.
The latter blew the top of Williams' head off with a shotgun. Pritchard gave himself up and is in jail.
Williams has a bad record.

Sets the Verdict Aside.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Dec. 26.—In the Federal court at Huntsville Mrs. Ida Ross, widow of Robert C. Ross, who was shot and killed by the Skelton boys at Stevenson several months ago, has been awarded a verdict of $16,000
against the Western Union Telegraph company because of the company's alleged failure to deliver to Ross a message warning him that the Skelton boys were after him. Judge Bowman set aside the verdict as being excessive.

winning the first, third and fourth heats in 2:08, 2:07 and 2:08. Patchen won the second heat in 2:13. Alix did not start yesterday, but will go to-day.
She is said to be fit to break the record.

thirsty PropositionMINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Dec. 26.—If the story that comes from the county jail is true, Harry Hayward, charged with the murder of Catherine Gfing, is more than a fiend incarnate. That the calm exterior of Hayward is but a cover for the most desperate schemes and purposes became so apparent to the officers who have him in their keeping that they believe the trial will not close without episodes of a blood-curdling character. Other officers of justice who have been through the inside of the cases against Blixt and Harry Hayward think the same thing.
An attempt to bribe Sheriff Ege to kill Blixt or allow him to kill himself is sensational but truthful news from the jail. Hayward is desperate. His actions indicate this, however viewed.
He made a proposition yesterday that Blixt should be killed and suicide claimed. It is thought Hayward is insane.

CHOICE IOWA LANDS AT STAKE.

Validity of Tax Titles in Question Through Former Owner's Insanity.SIOUX CITY, Iowa, Dec. 26.—Suit has been begun in the Iowa Supreme court involving thousands of acres of land in northwestern Iowa. In the early '50s John Irwin located a large number of military land warrants upon some of the choicest lands in northwest Iowa.
During the war Irwin became financially embarrassed and failing to pay taxes upon his Iowa lands they were sold at tax sale. Tax titles thus acquired were purchased by parties who improved the lands and have for many years resided upon them. In October, 1893, Irwin died in Nebraska, and now his heirs have brought suit to redeem from the tax sales, claiming Irwin was insane at the time the lands were sold for taxes, and so continued up to the time of his death. In Clay county alone over seventy different farms are involved.

Will Investigate a Bank's Failures.

LANSING, Mich., Dec. 26.—The de-positors of the Central Michigan Savings bank, which closed its doors in April, 1893, since which time it has been in the hands of a receiver, met yesterday and appointed a committee to make thorough investigation of the books in order to determine who was responsible for its wreck. Many of the depositors are in an ugly mood and the movement is directed against the several persons who are generally suspected of profiting by operations which ruined the institution.

Follows a Mad Impulse to Kill.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Dec. 26.—William Mentzel, a Postal telegraph lineman, took a few drinks of liquor yesterday, borrowed a 44 caliber revolver from the bartender, went into the street and shot down Frank Tracy, a carpenter, and a friend of Mentzel. A more cold blooded murder was never committed in the city. Mentzel's only excuse for the crime is he felt an impulse to kill some one and, as Tracy was the first man in sight, he shot him.

She Is Stamped to Death By a Cow.

NEWMAN'S GROVE, Neb., Dec. 26.—
Yesterday morning Mrs. Carrie Mc-Caull went out to milk a fractious cow.
Her children found her lying under a cow, which had kicked and stamped her to death. The frontal bone was broken and crushed into the brain. Mrs.
Moon was a widow, leaving five children, the eldest 10 years old.

Jewelry Store Is Robbed.

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Iowa, Dec. 26.—The jewelry store of N. P. Conant was robbed last evening of $1,500 worth of goods. The robbery was committed when Conant was at supper. All the plunder was taken from a showcase within ten feet of Broadway.

Cliff House Is Gone.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Dec. 26.—The Cliff house burned last night. Adolph Sutro's big bath house, recently completed at a cost of $500,000, was threatened. There were no means of fighting fire at the Cliff house and the nearest fire engine was four miles away. At 9:30 the Cliff house was a mass of ruins. The fire had uncontrolled headway and speedily burned itself out. The baths were saved. The monetary loss is not great, probably not over $20,000.

Catarrh starts in the nasal passages, affecting eyes, ears and throat, and is in fact, the general enemy of the mucous membrane. Neglected colds in the head almost invariably precede catarrh, causing an excessive flow of mucus, and if the mucous discharge becomes interrupted the disagreeable results of catarrh will follow, such as bad breath, severe pain across forehead and about eyes, a roaring and buzzing sound in the ears and oftentimes a very offensive discharge. Ely's Cream Balm is the acknowledged cure for these troubles.

MILTON JUNCTION, Dec. 26.—The public school entertainment Saturday night was very fine, and a successful drill. There are some fine speakers among the young ladies. The music was excellent. The tableaux were very fine indeed. The hall was crowded. The receipts were over twenty-two dollars. Earl Kelley is home from Illinois, where he has been attending school. Mrs. Aldrich, who has been staying with her mother here the past summer, has gone to Chicago, to accept a position with Siegel, Cooper, & Co. GOOD TEMPLARS AT COOKSVILLE.

The Sixth District Convention Held at That Town.

COOKSVILLE, Dec. 26.—The Sixth district of I. O. G. T. held their convention here the 12th and 13th of December. Thirty-eight delegates were present and it was both pleasant and instructive. Our lodge now numbers sixty-six in good standing and we hope to have one hundred before the winter is over. Nathaniel Slawson and wife were surprised by about eighty people last Saturday morning. It being their twentieth anniversary. Dinner was served to all and some costly china was presented to Mr. and Mrs. Slawson and all returned home after passing a very pleasant day. Mrs. McKinney's daughter of Dakota, has come home to take care of her mother who has the dropsy. Julius Savage is gaining slowly and is now able to be out a little. Charlie Miller, wife and little daughter have gone to Bellville to spend Christmas. Miss Kate Miller visited her sister, Mrs. Moore, in Columbia last week. George Wilder was shaking hands here Saturday. He is home from the university for a few days.

COLLINS ONLY DEFENDED HIMSELF.

Was Not Drunk Sunday and Not Seeking Trouble, He Says.

James Collins denies that he was drunk Sunday morning or that he received any injuries in the depot fracas. He claimed that a member of the White Light club wanted to borrow some money and that he refused to lend it to them. This provoked the fight which Collins says was purely defensive on his part.

"I have been trying to do what is right" he said last night. "I have been working with my father carrying the hod and I have also worked as a bar tender. I have not been frequenting the saloons. I never complained about anything that I deserved but in this matter I simply refused to contribute money, and defended myself when attacked. There seems to be some people in the town who do not want to see me get a show to behave myself. Everything I do is enlarged upon and when others escape censure I am always the sufferer."

LITTLE BOY SET THE BARN ON FIRE

Department Had a Christmas Alarm and a Mile Run.

"Pa, I have started a fire out in the barn, and its all ablaze," exclaimed a little four-year old son of Charles Smith, who resides at 401 Western avenue yesterday afternoon. Mr. Smith hastened to the barn, but the fire had gained such headway in a pile of marsh hay stacked against the barn that he could not extinguish it. An alarm was turned in from box 43 at the corner of Washington avenue and South Academy street. After making a mile run the fire department extinguished the fire with a loss not exceeding five dollars.

DISPATCHES FROM WASHINGTON GIVES CHEERING NEWS

Janesville People Were Shocked Christmas Eve by the Report of Her Death, But This Proved Untrue and a Telegram Last

Felling the Landlord.

"It's a splendid day outside. Suppose we take a little walk," said Mr. Up-town to his wife, who is very close.

"Take a walk and leave this expensive flat for which we pay such high rent unoccupied? Not much, I propose to stay right here and get the worth of my money."—Texas Siftings.

Getting His Money's Worth.

Jenks—Yes, I always take my boy along when I go to the minstrels. That's the only way I can get my money's worth.

Binks—How so?

Jinks—The music is new to me, and the jokes are new to him.—N. Y. Weekly.

Natural Once More.

Cumso—Jaysmith is himself again.

Fangle—What do you mean?

Cumso—You know a relative left him $10,000 a few months ago?

Fangle—Yes.

Cumso—It's all gone. He struck me for a five this morning, just as he used to in the good old times.—Town Topics.

A Gallant Request.

"If I should die, my dear, for me

No sables don," her husband pleads;

"For it would grieve the world to see

The flower of womanhood—in weeds!"

—N. Y. World.

TWO OF A KIND.

Rector—Ah me! Drunk again! Village Inebriate (consoling)—So! I, sir—so'm I!—Pall Mall Budget.

Right in His Line.

Warden—What did you do for a living outside?

Convict—My most signal success was as a campaign orator.

Warden—Very well; I'll set you to work blowing up rubber cushions.—N. Y. World.

Sizing It Up.

"What is this?" asked Hicks, picking up a small bit of velvet and jet.

"That," replied his wife, "is my new full-dress bonnet; what did you think it was?"

"I didn't know but it was a washer to go on a hat pin."—N. Y. World.

A Reasonable Request.

Old Lady—Beg pardon for interrupting, but do you speak any language besides English?

Teamster (with balky horse)—I do, mum.

Old Lady—Then won't you please do your swearing in it?—N. Y. Weekly.

The Spanker, Too.

Ernie's Mother (to Ernie, who has been a little impudent to his father)—But don't you know your father is the mainstay of the family?

Ernie—Yes, you just bet he is. And the spanker, too.—San Francisco Call.

A Nursery Barometer.

Little Sister—I's 'fraid it's goin' to rain.

Little Brother—Why?

Little Sister—I's been tryin' for most a hour to make dolly stand up, an' she falls over every time. I dess her corns hurt.—Good News.

The Very Latest Article.

Mrs. Fussy (who has kept the dry goods clerk in agony for over an hour)—You needn't show me anything more; there's nothing here that suits me.

Clerk (desperately)—Can't I show you the door, ma'am?—Chicago Tribune.

It Gave Him a Pain.

Eager Maiden—Well, Reginald, what did papa say?

Rejected Suitor (about to depart)—It cannot be expressed in words. All that I can tell you is that his answer gave me great pain.—Truth.

Equestrian Item.

Vanderehump—I don't see Dudely riding in the park any more.

Vandercam—No, he has quit it.

"Sworn off?"

"No; fell off and broke his neck."—Texas Siftings.

It Wasn't Queer to Her.

Mr. Watts—It seems queer that elephants should be so afraid of mice.

Mrs. Watts—I don't see anything queer in it at all. The elephant is one of the most intelligent of quadrupeds.—Cincinnati Tribune.

Very Homelike.

Mrs. Quiverful—Was that place where you boarded during my absence at all homelike?

Mr. Q.—Very. The children made so much noise I couldn't hear myself think.—N. Y. Weekly.

What Counts Nowadays.

"Yes, but it was beautifully bound, you know."—Truth.

Three-Quarters of the Way.

Hecker—I'm glad to see you out again, old man. I hear you've been very near to death's door.

Decker—Yes; I went as far as the doctor's.—Christmas Puck.

Frequent Sorrow.

Of all the sad words to scribbling cranks, The saddest are these: "Declined with thanks."—Truth.

Old Pledge.

At the Paris Monte de Piete, the official pawnbroking establishment, a wedding ring pawned in 1857 has just been redeemed. Only 17 francs were loaned on it originally, but the ticket was renewed thirty-six times, and the owner paid 50 francs in interest. Tickets are still renewed every year for a pair of cotton curtains pledged for 4 francs twenty-two years ago, and for an umbrella pawned in 1849.

She Was Ready.

The train was full of fierce robbers. Strong men sat in the seats of the cars and held their hands as high as possible. Women trembled and wept, with the exception of the spectacled young woman from Wayside Station. A robber approached her. "Don't you dare to touch me," she shouted, "or I'll scream as loud as I can!"

"On Tick."

There are few people who can conscientiously say that they have never heard those two suggestive words "On Tick;" and possibly there are many to whom the sight of them may recall unpleasant reminiscences. It is a term, however, in very common use, especially among the impecunious class; in fact, some of them may be said to live on the practice so-named. "Tick," for credit, is a word at least as old as the seventeenth century, and is corrupted from ticket, as a tradesman's bill was formerly called. The phrase was originally "on ticket"—that is, things taken to be put on the bill.

Sea Air vs. Living Skeletons.

Macdonald Gordon of Healey, Australia, weighed but thirty-four pounds although six feet in height and broad in proportion. Some London speculators heard of the freak, and resolved to put the "bloomin' living skeleton" on exhibition in the British capital. They sent a man to the Antipodes to bring the skinny Mac at any reasonable figure, but when he arrived they were on the point of arresting the agent for fraud—the "living skeleton" weighed 141 pounds! The sea air and change of food had ruined the speculation.

Special Tax Notice.

Notice is hereby given that the warrant for the collection of the special assessment for paving West Milwaukee street between High and Academy streets and East Milwaukee street between Main and Division streets, in the city of Janesville, is now in my hands for collection, and that I will receive the same at the office of the city treasurer until January 10, 1895, after which I shall proceed to collect the same as the law directs.

City Treasurer.

Dated December 18, 1894.

The prune industry is stated to be attracting attention in Idaho. It is reported that in the Payette valley, where the culture of prunes is one of the leading industries, there are ranchers who have made as high as $1,000 an acre.

ONE WOMAN'S REWARD.

A GREAT SHOWER OF CONFIDENCE

Such as Never Descended upon Any Other American Woman.

[SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.]

IT'S a glorious possession. The most famous physician wins it from a comparatively small number. One woman, and only one, has won it from tens of thousands during the past twenty years.

Loving confidences, heartfelt gratitude, loyal devotion, is showered upon her name because of salvation from a miserable existence, and the peace and joy of restored health through her wonderful skill.

Lydia E. Pinkham's name will go down the ages as the friend of all women.

Her Vegetable Compound has saved thousands from the terrors of female complaints.

Backache, despondency, fainting, spinal weakness, avoiding society, bearing down, are all symptoms of trouble in the womb. The Vegetable Compound removes the cause of the trouble.

Read what Mrs. S. W. White, who lives at 816 Holly Street, West Philadelphia, Pa., calls a family blessing.

Thus she writes to Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I have suffered for ten years with female complaints of the worst form, accompanied by severe spinal trouble, causing incessant backache, weakness of the stomach, and nervousness.

"I gave up all hope of ever being well again. Just then someone recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I followed your directions and treatment until I am now a perfectly well woman.

"I gave it to my two daughters, aged fourteen and sixteen years, and they are fine, healthy girls.

"It is surely a blessing to our family."

"MILKED A WHOLE COW."

In This Fashion a Peevish Husband Cut His Blowing Wife.

At a plea sant home in Covington the other evening a happy company were gathered. The host and hostess had just returned from a trip to Mackinac, and the young wife was relating to her guests some of the incidents of the journey.

"Oh, I learned so many things while we were gone," said she, and her pretty face was lighted with the most becoming animation as she went on breathlessly.

"We stopped one day at the state institution for the deaf and dumb in Michigan, and what do you think the steward told us? Why, he said they sift a barrel of flour for every meal there."

"A barrel of flour!" said a young lady who was listening.

"Yes," said the hostess, triumphantly, "for every meal. And how many potatoes do you suppose they peel for dinner? Guess."

Nobody dared.

"Ten bushels. Just think of it! And they use three barrels of cabbage, and when they have watermelon it takes just 260 to go round. But listen. That isn't all. They seed 175 pounds of raisins for the Sunday cake and they put twenty-one bushels of apples in the pies. Don't they, Harry?"

Harry was the husband and the companion in this remarkable voyage of discovery. He turned to his wife fondly and then drawled out the meanest speech of his married life.

"Yes, my dear. Not only that, but they milk one whole cow every day."

TRIES THE NERVES.

The Shoe Salesman Certainly Has His Troubles.

"I do not believe," said a salesman in a big retail shoehouse, where a vast number of shoes are sold every day, and principally to ladies, "that any business in the world will try a man's nerves and patience like this. The best and sweetest tempered woman in the world becomes a cold-blooded cynic the moment she starts to buy a pair of shoes. She has a fixed idea in her head that she wears a certain size and any attempt of a salesman to convince her that she wears a size larger is regarded as an affront. I have actually had women walk away from me and ask the manager to send some one else to wait on them because I showed them by measuring the outline of their feet drawn on a piece of paper, that they were mistaken in the size."

"I remember particularly one lady who insisted that she wore a 3 A, and had never worn anything else in her life. The shoe she had on was a 4 A, although marked one size smaller. I was imprudent enough to demonstrate this to her, and she took the shoes from my hand and walked with one stocking foot to another salesman. Recently I had a customer who tried on 14 pairs of shoes and then did not buy, because she could not get her foot into the size that she declared was her fit. By the time we are ready to go home I feel sour enough to make vinegar out of cider by looking at it."

HUMAN BALLOON.

An Indian With the Power of Distending Himself.

San Jacinto has a first class sensation in the person of a big Indian named Eduardo Guata, who lives across the river in the famous village of Saboba. Eduardo's peculiarity is, that he has the power of distending himself at will to most enormous dimensions. When Eduardo has been persuaded to give an exhibition of his expansive properties, he arranges for it with all due solemnity and dignity. He loosens his overalls, unbuckles his suspenders shakes out a reef or two in his shirt, takes a last look at the world, and starts in to pump himself full of atmosphere.

It is a sight to see him swell up. Eduardo is no sprinter to begin with, but when he has successfully engulfed a tubful or two of air he would put a prize hog to the blush. He keeps on bravely until the spectators get nervous with the momentary expectation of an explosion. Just as the suspense becomes unbearable Eduardo ceases and displays his person proudly to the assembled throng. They have only one tape line, so haven't tried to measure him when inflated, but his circumference is something appalling. When Eduardo wishes to reduce himself he merely makes some mysterious folding motions of his arms and shoulders, when presto! change! Richard is himself again.

HEAVY LOSS BY FIRE.

Damage of $125,000 in Burlington, Vermont.

BURLINGTON, Vt., Dec. 26.—A fire which started last night in the lath shed connected with a big lumber yard owned by J. R. Booth was not got under control until 4 o'clock this morning, after it had done damage estimated at $150,000. From the lath shed the flames spread to the surrounding lumber and six acres was burned over. All the lumber sheds were destroyed and a heavy wind carried the fire to the mills owned by W. and G. E. Crane, which were burned. Twenty cars standing on the Central Vermont tracks loaded with lumber and merchandise, and the Central Vermont engine house, were also burned. Almost 2,000,000 feet of lumber were destroyed. The insurance is estimated at about $125,000.

To Encourage Sweet Cassava Culture

WASHINGTON, Dec. 26.—The agriculture department has issued a bulletin on the culture, properties and uses of sweet cassava, which is found in southern Florida and well up in the frost belt. From a careful study of the climatic conditions under which the plant flourishes it is safe to assume, says the bulletin, that it may also be grown with success in southern Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana and Texas. Cassava is a name which should properly apply only to the purified starch derived from the roots of the plant, but it has passed into general use to designate the plant itself.

HORSE THIEF CAME ON CHRISTMAS EVE

AT THE SAME TIME, GRANT FISHER'S HORSE LEFT.

The Animal Was a Handsome Bay Mare and the Town of Center Farmers Offers $25 Reward For the Equine and Thief—A Day's News in the Town.

A horse thief made himself a Christmas present in the town of Center Christmas eve. Grant W. Fisher was the loser and he offers a reward of $25 for the thief and horse. The animal was a fine bay mare, nine years old, weight about 1200 pounds, one white hind foot, black points. She was inclined to be ugly to strangers. Mr. Fisher at once put the matter in Chief of Police Acheson's hands and the chief sent postal cards in all directions at noon giving a description of the stolen horse and offering the arrest of the thief.

The "crazy man" who has been hanging about Center for some time disappeared some days ago and no trace of him has been found. Whether or not he knows anything about the stolen animal is a question, but it will be hard for the thief to get away.

ONE of the greatest singers of today will be heard here this week at Myers Grand Opera house. She is the Black Patti (Mme. Sissieretta Jones), and is well known for her success in nearly every city of importance. She comes to us with an excellent company, including Mathilde Walter (contralto), Vincenzo Bieleto (tenor), Orme Darvall (basso), Felix Heink (pianist) and Little Ruby, the phenomenal child dancer. Orme Darvall is the possessor of a bass voice of quality unfrequently heard and of great depth and vast compass. In fact, all the artists of this company rank among the best.

EVERYONE should be familiar with Shakespearean plays and when a great and artistic actor (so spoken of by the leading critics in the country) is heralded to appear in a repertoire of classic dramas the advance sale of seats should be so large as to demonstrate that our citizens appreciate high art. Manager Stoddard has succeeded in securing Walker Whiteside, the tragedian, to fill an engagement in this city and he certainly is to be congratulated.

MANY a man who would like to set the world on fire, stays in bed and lets his wife kindle the conflagration to cook his breakfast with. Many a person lets the golden opportunity of life go by. Our cost slipper sale is one of the chances you don't have every day. Why don't you take advantage of it? Brown Bros. & Lincoln.

A DARK CORNER HID A DUDISH ROBBER

CHARLES TALL ATTACKED BY A FOOTPAD.

The Thug Wore a Silk Hat and Jumped on Mr. Tall When He Wasn't Looking—Cellar Also Visited By His Confederates—Wood Piles and Coal Bins Visited.

Footpads picked out the wrong man last night when they tackled Charles Tall.

Mr. Tall, who is an employee of the Schlitz Brewing Company, has long had the reputation of being one of the most muscular men in town. He's older now, but his sinews are as steely as ever. He had been spending the evening at the home of his son, Henry Tall, of the People's Ice Company, who lives near by. He had taken but a few steps after leaving the house, when a burly stranger with a silk hat on jumped on him from a dark corner.

Mr. Tall, once upon a time used to carry one end of a piano with ease, while two men groaned under the load of the other end. Perhaps the thug didn't know this; if he had he might not have been so "brash." Mr. Tall grappled with him and called for help. The robber struggled and got away before people came in answer to Mr. Tall's shouts, and no trace of him could be found. Three men were in the crowd and while one attacked Mr. Tall the others had been engaged in going through the cellar of the house. The neighbors say that several tough looking citizens have been hanging about the Second ward John D. O'Hara, who resides across the street heard a noise in his back yard last night and hustled out to kill or conquer, but the trespasser had left before he got out. Second ward people are becoming pretty well worked up. Wood piles and coal bins have been growing less extensive with each succeeding night and some of these fine evenings someone will get hurt. F. C. Grant's of fuel especially has been singled out for general use.

TRAVELERS' BANQUET TONIGHT Annual Jollification Comes Off at the Park Hotel This Evening.

There will be more fun at the Park hotel tonight than you can confine in a keg.

That is always the case when the Commercial Travelers' Association hold their annual banquet. This is one time of the year, at least, when the jolly salesmen lay aside their grips and go in for a good time. The members of the association wear a mysterious smile which would indicate that something is in the wind in the way of a surprise and it may be more than one thing too. The program has been made out for a night of pleasure and they will have it.

FOUND A PONY IN HER STOCKING Handsome Present that Elizabeth McKey Received on Christmas.

Elizabeth, the ten year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George M. McKey, Park place, was not only surprised but astonished Christmas morning when the family gathered around the Christmas tree in the parlor. There, tied to the tree, stood a handsome little Shetland pony, harnessed to a little phaeton. It was a present for her, and Mr. McKey conceived of this unique manner of presenting the rig, by bringing the lilliputians into the parlor. It was a handsome present and little Miss Elizabeth will enjoy herself fully in its use.

THEY STOOD AT CUPID'S SHRINE McCord-Godfrey.

William McCord and Miss Mary Ann Godfrey both of Lima were married on Christmas day at 8 p. m. at the residence of John H. Godfrey in that town. The ceremony was performed in the presence of a large company of guests by Rev. S. G. Huey, of the Rock Prairie United Presbyterian church assisted by Rev. Mr. Smauder of Chicago after which the company sat down to an elaborate wedding dinner. The bride and groom were the recipients of a large number of handsome and useful presents. Both are well known in Rock county. Mr. McCord is the son of William J. McCord and the bride is one of Rock county's popular school teachers.

Lehman-Eberly.

Eldo R. Lehman and Myra M. Eberly, both of Wooster, Ohio, were married by Rev. S. P. Wilder, at his home, on Christmas day.

Remember Their Employers.

The employees of the Park hotel remembered Mr. and Mrs. Galbraith in a very appropriate way yesterday. They presented them with one of the hand-somest table lamps ever bought. It was shown on the table at dinner yesterday and spoke in very high terms of the appreciation their employees have for them. The host and hostess reciprocated in a very deserving way and presented each employee with a handsome present in honor of the day. The entire force then adjourned to the kitchen and dining room and served one of the best meals ever put on a table, and the many guests enjoyed it hugely.

A Handsome Piano.

We received a piano from the factory this morning that is without a doubt, the best and handsomest piano ever shown in the town. It is now on exhibition at our jewelry store, and all who have seen it, pronounce it superior to any other in Janesville, and the beauty of it is one of the celebrated Colby's which have such a great reputation. D. W. Koll.

J. A. CUNNINGHAM GIVEN A PRESENT His Employees Remembered Him with a Handsome Chair Yesterday.

According to all appearances there will never be a strike in the factory of the Janesville Clothing Company. This was shown conclusively when the employees presented J. A. Cunningham with a handsome rocking chair as a Christmas present and a token of their esteem. Mrs. F. C. Brooks, the forelady, made the presentation in behalf of the employees. Occurrences of this kind show that the relations between employer and employee are as they should be. The gift was a complete surprise to and thoroughly appreciated by Mr. Cunningham.

WILLIAM PAUL'S HORSE RAN AWAY Took a Lengthy Spin That Ended Without Much Damage.

The quiet monotony of West Milwaukee street was disturbed this forenoon by a runaway horse attached to a buggy. The horse belonged to "Uncle Willie" Paul of Milton, and broke from the hitching post at the hospital on Mineral Point avenue. After making quite a circuit through several streets, the horse brought up at the Park hotel, the damage resulting being very slight.

Lloyd S. Dunlap.

Death came suddenly to Lloyd S. Dunlap, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Dunlap, last night and turned Christmas cheer into the bitterness of affliction. The sad event occurred at the home of G. J. Lloyd on West Pleasant street and the funeral will be held from the house at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning. Mrs. Dunlap is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd.

Andrew Yuel.

Mr. and Mrs. George Yahn of this city, attended the funeral of Mrs. Yahn's father, Andrew Yuel, who died at his home in Helenville, Wis., at the age of sixty years. The cause of his death was liver complaint. He was one of the old settlers in that place having resided there for forty years.

Our Apology.

Any person with horse sense ought to know that to sell goods at cost would ruin any concern. A bank that would advertise to loan money without interest would be considered unsafe. We have an object in closing out our line of holiday slippers, if they don't go now we will have to carry them until next winter, and then have back numbers to work off. We want the money in other stock. Cost in many cases will be abhorred. Our loss will be your gain. Take advantage of this sale and save the profit.

CRAZY GIRL DEAD IN THE HOSPITAL

MISS LINNA ZILMAN'S INSANITY IS AT AN END.

She Became Suddenly Demented Some Days Ago and Was Taken to Mendota—$1000 Insurance on Her Life—Relatives Could Not Be Found After a Search.

Linna Zilman, the domestic recently in the employ of H. F. Bliss, who became suddenly insane and was sent to the insane asylum last week, died at Mendota yesterday morning. Under the name of Julia Zeall she was insured for $1,000 in the Prudential, represented by L. T. Grant of this city. None of her immediate relatives can be found. This morning Judge Sale sent Mr. Grant to Mendota to identify the body, and appointed Public Administrator M. M. Phelps to take charge of her effects. The conditions of her insurance are such that only $750 can be collected, it being conditioned that in case of death within one year from date only two-thirds of the amount of the policy should be paid. Very little is known about her in the city and no relatives who would do anything in the matter were found. She talked incoherently about her family but never made the same statement twice. Complete investigation was made upon the scanty clues furnished, but the news of her death may reach some of her kin that the officers did not know of.

THE SALOONISTS WERE ARRESTED Dermody Brothers Are Charged with Keeping Open After Hours.

They had kept their saloon open between 1 and 2 o'clock Christmas morning, according to the affidavit of the chief of police.

A plea of guilty was entered, and they were fined the limit, $25 and costs, amounting to $27.90 which was paid.

A STORY WITH A FLAW.

How a Hungarian Statesman Relieved Himself of People Who Hated Him.

Of the Hungarian statesman, Francis Deak, it is related that he used to rid himself of troublesome visitors by telling them the following story:

"Once, when in Paris, Napoleon I paid a visit to a hospital for old soldiers. Here he perceived among the rest a man who had lost one of his arms, and he entered into conversation with him.

"Where did you lose your arm?" asked the emperor.

"At Waterloo, your majesty."

"Then, no doubt, you curse the emperor and your country every time you look at your mutilated limb?"

"No, indeed," protested the veteran, "for the emperor and my native land I would readily sacrifice my other arm if needs be."

"I can hardly believe that," the emperor quietly remarked, and passed on.

"But the soldier, anxious to prove that he was in earnest, immediately drew a saber from its sheath and lopped off his other arm."

Here Deak would pause and fix a penetrating look on his visitor. "Well, what have you to say of such a man and such an action?"

"A most sublime act of self-sacrifice! A truly noble character!" This was the style of reply invariably given.

"But the story has one flaw," he would gravely add.

"What is that, pray?"

"It is simply impracticable. How could a one-armed man contrive to cut off his only remaining arm?"

HER WATCH.

The Scornful Jeweler Expressed Surprise That It Had Stopped.

A young girl took her watch into the jeweler's recently and explained that something was the matter with it. While the watchmaker examined it the owner of the fractious watch remarked that she did not see what made it act so.

"It is always stopping or having something happen to it," she said.

"Possibly you do not take good care of it," ventured the jeweler, closely regarding the interior of the watch.

"Oh, yes, I do. I wind it nearly every night, and I nearly always remember to take it out of my pocket when I take off my dress. The pocket in my gray dress is too large, though, and sometimes it falls into the bowl when I am washing."

"Water would ruin it if it got inside," remarked the jeweler.

"That little bit wouldn't," said the girl, with a very wise shake of the head. "It's only falls that hurt them. Once it fell out of the upstairs window, but it landed in the rose bush, and it wasn't hurt much. The time Johnny squeezed it by shutting the bureau drawer on it the crystal was broken, though."

By that time the jeweler had discovered that the balance wheel was out of place and two cogs broken.

"I don't see how it happened," said the girl in surprise. "It flew out of my blouse pocket yesterday when I was swinging dumb-bells, but I don't suppose that was what hurt it." "Those things seldom do," said the man, this time with a touch of scorn.

HUSKING BEE SPORT.

How the Forefathers Celebrated the Joyous Autumnal Season.

A story is told of the husking-bee devilry in the pioneer days of Dexter. Captain Small, one of the first-comers, after he had grown to the dignity of having a big barn, gave a husking to which a large, merry party gathered.

While the supper was progressing, and the coast was clear, some of the "boys" drove one of the captain's steers into the barn floor, and, attaching a rope to him lifted him up over the high beams to the top of the hay-mow. They were so spry about it that the joke was not discovered.

The steer was missed, of course, and a search of all the surrounding country was made without success. The animal was given up for lost, when one day, a week after the husking, the captain was in his barn and heard a long "moo" up in the ridge-pole.

Looking up, there was the missing steer gazing calmly down at him over the high beam. Such was the sport the daddies had in their young days. Modern huskings are more prosaic.

The Value of Horses.

The falling off in the value of common horses is largely explained by the fact that, as their places have been taken by electricity and the cable of street cars the demand has been much curtailed. The life of a car horse, as is well known, is very short, about eighteen months of regular service, and while they were in general use the demand for animals available for that kind of work was always steady, and therefore, the price of them was kept up.

WAS A FOREHANDS BOY.

He Bought a Knife and Prepared Himself Against the Inevitable.

The wisdom of a philosopher is not to be placed over the foresight displayed the other day by one of the rising generation of the thinkers and rulers of the country. It was the son of a family well known in Cincinnati possessed of the desire for a jack-knife that seizes youths of his age. He laid plans to secure one. It was against the wishes of his mother, however, who, mother-like, warned him of the danger of possessing the dreadful implement and expatiated upon the resulting cuts and consequent sticking plaster. The son was satisfied for the day, but having given to him a quarter, there was of course no better way to dispose of his wealth than to buy the coveted knife. This he did, and being in no way a deceiving youth he made the fact known at his home.

"What!" said his mother, "you have bought a knife? And how much did you pay for it?"

"Twenty cents," was the answer.

"Well, what did you do with the rest of your quarter?"

"Oh, I bought sticking plaster with that."

LI HUNG CHANG'S WIFE.

A Story Illustrating Her Kindness to Foreign Physicians.

The wife of Li Hung Chang is about 55 years of age, and comes of a distinguished Manchurian family. The following story is told to explain her kindness to foreign physicians: Some years ago she was taken very sick with a complication of diseases, and after being treated several months by the leading physicians of the capital was given up by them to die. In these straits she and the viceroy called in a male and female physician belonging to the American board of foreign missions, who were so skilful and also so fortunate as to preserve her life, and in the course of a year to restore her former health and strength. This incident increased the affection of both herself and Li Hung Chang for foreign missions, foreign physicians and foreigners in general. Li Hung Chang commemorated his gratitude by fitting up a general dispensary at Tien Tsin, which he presented to the mission, while Lady Li, not to be outdone in her appreciation of the skill that she had enjoyed, established a second, especially for women, and placed it entirely in the charge of the American lady physician who had attended her. Both before and after her sickness she has granted audience to scores of European and American ladies, a privilege that is not accorded by more than one in a thousand Chinese ladies belonging to the nobility.

In the Maine Woods.

The wearing of moccasins is so common in the rural districts of Maine and New Brunswick that shoemakers find it profitable to manufacture them wholesale, although the Indians are still reputed to make the best. The true moccasin is a light, thin foot covering of deerskin; but what is called a "shupack," and is perhaps even more in use, is a moccasin with an extra thickness of leather under the sole, and it comes a little higher on the ankle. The lumbermen wear "larrigans," which are made sometimes of deer hide and sometimes of moose leather, thick, strong, stiff, and oiled until they are as yellow as bar soap. They are shaped like boots, with heavy soles, and reach half way to the knee.

Why Dr. Holmes Had the Blues.

Dr. Holmes, several years ago, asked a friend: "What is your idea of happiness?" And the prompt answer, "Four feet on the fender," gave him great satisfaction. Some time later, perhaps a year or more, this friend found Dr. Holmes in his study, sitting alone by the fire, looking not very happy. To the visitor's solicitous greeting came the reply: "Only two feet on the fender."

CHIPS AND SHAVINGS.

Black River, Wis., policemen besieged a house for three hours in the full conviction that burglars were inside. They found a cow, which had entered through the kitchen door.

A Tacoma, Wash., couple have been married nineteen years and have fourteen children, all living. During the past ten years they have been divorced three times and as often remarried.

General Gibbon of Baltimore has secured a curious flag of truce which was used by the Florida Indians in 1849. It consists of a bunch of white feathers, a string of white beads and a piece of tobacco.

A New Yorker advertises for a lost cat named "Snooperkat," which he admits was exceedingly dishonest. To a Sun interviewer the disconsolate owner said: "Why, sir, that cat would climb up the screen door of the elevator and push the button; and as soon as he saw the elevator coming up he would run down the stairs and eat up the elevator boy's lunch."

A Gross Act of Cruelty.

Why should we be cruel to ourselves? It is a piece of senseless inhumanity, for instance, for any one of us to inflict upon his bowels and stomach the convulsive, gripping, violent action of a drastic cathartic. Many people endeavor of pills, powders and potions are continually doing this. They are the only "keeping up the agony," perpetuating the disturbance by this foolish course. Why don't they take Hostetter's Stomach Bitters and get thoroughly and promptly set right? This supreme laxative never gripes, never produces violent effects of any sort. But it is very effective and brings about permanent results. For liver complaint, dyspepsia, nervousness, lack of vitality, rheumatic and kidney complaints, it is eminently serviceable. In old age, and to accelerate convalescence it is strongly to be commended. Use it for malaria.

If the Baby Is Cutting Teeth.

FOR GROWING GIRLS.

Charming Frocks of Cloth and Silk That Afford Perfect Freedom.

A fair amount of thought goes to the successful composing of a costume for the wear of a growing girl. The gift of foresight is rather one of cultivation than an endowment of some fairy godmother at birth, but the predisposition to it must be innate. Care for the comfort and well being of the youthful wearer is the true inspiration, and this affection makes many clever in such matters who would not shine elsewhere.

A good way of providing for development of frame is to have the bodices gathered, the lining being made with a few plaits, which can be let out as necessity arises. This avoids the tightness that is so injurious to any human creature, but especially to one whose growth is not complete. Some of these full bodices are adapted to wearing over silk blouses, lined to sufficient warmth at the neck and in the sleeves. A dark blue serge is thus made, with the blouse and sleeves in bright cardinal surah, also a coffee brown dress with cardinal blouse, while a cream colored serge has a blouse of turquoise blue satin. The collar follows the fashion of that for adult wear in being of the "rolled" variety. Stiff ones have quite gone out for the wear of young girls, and it is well that it is so. For even the fully grown neck this ultra stiffened "gorget" is injurious. How much worse must it be for the growing one!

An illustration is given of a French model for a little girl's gown. The round, full skirt is plain and is gathered all around the waist under a draped velvet belt with chous. The plain bodice has large revers ornamented with an embroidered pattern and opening over a plastron having horizontal stripes. The balloon sleeves have deep, plain cuffs. A novel hat is worn with this little gown. It consists of a tiny velvet crown, from which fall coquilles of wide lace. A knot of velvet adorns the front.

A WORD ABOUT COLLARS.

Suggestions For Useful Gifts to Clever Welders of the Needle.

An English writer, referring to the approaching holiday season, very sensibly remarks that in the present depressed times it is a good idea to give useful gifts. Almost every one has some relative with excellent taste and some means, but without the ability to gratify some of the little luxurious fancies that all women delight in. A woman of this sort is to receive as a Christmas gift a dainty silk petticoat. It is something that she would not feel able to buy for herself, and one of her friends has at a sale found just the material for this most welcome addition to a not very well stocked wardrobe. It is not by any means a good plan to present ordinary articles of wearing apparel unless one is absolutely certain of the taste of the recipient. Many a woman has worn a hideously unbecoming dress or bonnet simply because some one gave it to her and she felt she must wear it.

Time was when one might select one's apparel at random, but taste has of late become so artistic that this sort of thing does not answer at all. However, there are certain articles, such as slippers and gloves, where it is hardly possible to go wrong, provided proper size is known. Veils, fichus and belts are also generally acceptable gifts, while for a member of one's immediate family an article of fine underwear may be chosen.

There are many dainty accessories of the toilet that constitute appropriate gifts. The collars illustrated, for instance, could be made at home by a deft handed person and would be a welcome addition to many a woman's costume. The first collar is made of wide lavender ribbon wrinkled over a band and gathered at the sides under jet buckles. A ribbon chou is placed above each buckle, while three small black ostrich tips are fastened behind the buckles. The second collar is of velvet lined with silk. Both the standing portion and the cape are rippled and are bordered with a ruching of ostrich or coq feathers. A bow of ribbon conceals the fastening in front.
